

MUSEUM of IDAHO

CURRENT EXHIBITS

Step into the future . . . of the 1800s. Experiment with 20+ machines dreamed up by Jules Verne, H.G. Wells, and others then, and brought to life now.

Examine Idahoans who shaped our land and were shaped by it. Their stories explore the balance between natural resources and human existence in the West.

NOVEMBER EVENTS

FOR KIDS

All listed kids' programs are FREE!
*Advance registration required online.

Nov 8 | 10am & 1pm

Little Learners*

Picture That!

Learn through crafts, games, songs, and snacks in this class for parents and toddlers ages 2-4.

Nov 17 | 1pm

Meet a Scientist

Photography: Preserving the Moment
Learn STEM topics from scientists working in our own community.

Nov 17 | 2pm

Discovery Day*

Photography: Preserving the Moment
Kids ages 6-12, stick around and enjoy more activities on the topic.

MUSEUM AFTER DARK

*Advance tickets required – buy online.

Nov 9 | 7:30pm

Wheat to Whiskey*

Grand Teton Distillery presents on the fascinating science that transforms a standard crop into a popular adult beverage. Tastings and hors d'oeuvres included. Ages 21+.

MUSEUM CLUB

Discussions for engaged citizens 55+.
FREE for MOI members, $5 for public.
Tickets at the door.

Nov 1 | 3pm

The Guns Grow Silent: World War I Ends 100 Years Ago

Linden Bateman, historian and former Idaho state legislator

Nov 15 | 3pm

Fascinating Facts about the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes

Randy'L Teton, Public Affairs Manager, Shoshone-Bannock Tribes